

REASON TO CHOOSE AN OCQUETEAU

Without being unaffordable, an OCQUETEAU is often more expensive than many of its competitors because of the quality of processes, materials and equipment in work. In fact what this quality brings to you and why invest more?

⇒ The choice between an architecture inboard or outboard on almost the entire range.

⇒ The recognized sea keeping of OCQUETEAU's hulls, high above the average standard in outboard and almost unbeatable in inboard. This criterion is by definition essential for leisure boat. More you'll like to navigate and more you will go out even in the event of uncertain weather, particularly at the end of season. And more the return will happen well ... even when the sea rises... and more you'll love navigate !

⇒ For the quality and durability of its construction. Visitors at the various shows are struck by the clearly discernible difference in components' quality. A boat is not a short-lived consumer product. It is an investment that we perform for many years. And if you want to change along the way, it will be easier that the boat will have aged well.

⇒ For its timeless style: far from phenomena of modes and useless innovations that devalue existing vessels and thus deplete the loyal customers, at OCQUETEAU we cultivate a reasoned product development, sticking to our base concept: comfortable and durable boats with high sea keeping standard.

Finally because these different qualities make that additional initial investment is offset by an unceasingly renewed pleasure in navigation and largely recovered when resale time comes...
